

Ex-Mayor Apologizes

Former Mayor William O'Dwyer (right) of New York City poses at his specially-called news conference in New York at which he apologized for over calling the extensive Brooklyn grand jury probe of police grafters a "witch hunt." O'Dwyer, now ambassador-designate to Mexico, was still mayor when he called the whole thing a witch hunt. "I am very sorry I said it, in view of later discoveries," O'Dwyer told the conference.

A body identified as that of Lewis Miller, barge captain from Amsterdam, was taken from the Hudson river about 3 p. m. Monday.

A Social Security card and other papers served to identify the body as that of a man who reportedly slipped off the back of a barge and drowned in the Hudson off Malden on Oct. 2.

The body was sighted by crew members of a passing ship about 1:30 p. m. Monday. They informed Coast Guard at New York by radio, and state police at Lake Katrine were then contacted by the Coast Guard station.

Trooper N. J. Nicodemus procured a boat and succeeded in recovering the body about 200 feet from the west bank of the Hudson at West Camp about 3 p. m.

After identification was made, the body was turned over to Coroner Michael A. Galletta and will be shipped to Ulster today. Miller was captain of a barge being towed by the tug Lloyd O. of which J. L. Hines was captain. Miller reportedly slipped overboard when he was throwing a bucketful of water over the stern of his barge. Unable to swim, he drowned despite efforts of a crew member to rescue him.

Two-Day Fair
May Be RepeatedNo Suggestion Is Made That Event Revert
to Single Day

A two-day annual Ulster County Fair and Farmers Field Day appears to be here to stay.

Not a single suggestion was made that the fair be cut back to one day. This year's two-day fair, with no admission charge, was a marked financial success, even though it was the first attempt at a more than one-day fair in recent years, officials said.

Those were the comments recorded at a special meeting Monday night by the directors of the sponsoring Ulster County Agricultural Society.

Commenting on the success of the fair, C. C. DuMont, Jr., Agricultural Society president, said it was due to the gratis assistance from many persons including department superintendents, Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, various departments of city government, the Chamber of Commerce, the Farm and Home Bureau and the 4-H Clubs. He also said the "fine support by a large number of commercial exhibitors was appreciated and contributed substantially to the success of the fair."

Premium checks totaling $6,837 will be mailed to exhibitors on November 1. This sum will go to a total of 440 exhibitors, of which fully two-thirds are 4-H Club members. The fair was held at Forsyth Park in Kingston August 16 and 17.

The annual meeting of the Ulster County Agricultural Society will be held Tuesday, January 19. Six directors will be elected at that time.

Democrats Are Objects of Bitter Oratory in Utica

En route with Dewey, Oct. 10 (AP)—Governor Dewey ripped into the Democrats as "fakers" on social issues today, as he campaigned into Rome and Syracuse. Dewey, waging a tireless, street-corner fight for a third term, faces a test in the industrialized, central New York cities. Syracuse, normally a G.O.P. stronghold, last year elected its first Democratic mayor in a quarter century. Rome also swung from the Republican to the Democratic column.

Dewey went to Rome after giving what one Republican called a "shot-in-the-arm" to the Onondaga county G.O.P. with two hard-hitting speeches yesterday at Utica. The governor stumped in the heart of Utica's Democratic-dominated Italian section in a dramatic street performance. He turned bitter oratorical scorn on the Legislature's Democrats for voting against the state's sickness-disability benefits law.

Dewey said the Republican-sponsored law provided families with vital financial assistance, when the "breadwinner" was laid off by illness or disability.

Hatless and Toused
Dewey, hatless and toused, spoke from a convertible car with the top lowered.

He ditched his policy of not naming opposition political candidates and said two Onondaga county legislators—Sen. John McKenna and Assemblyman Jeremiah J. Ashcroft—had voted against the measure.

"This isn't political oratory," he shouted. "This is on the record."

When a youth hollered "prove it," Dewey called for the Senate and Assembly tally sheets, which, he said, showed McKenna and Ashcroft voting "nay."

Opposed Betterment Bills
The governor waved the papers vigorously and added: "The Democrats have voted against every bill for social advance in this state. The only friends the people of this state have got are Republicans."

"The Republicans are the only ones who have made progress against discrimination in employment and education," he said.

Dewey spoke only a few feet from the business establishment of Park A. Emma, Democratic city chairman.

Dewey crowded around Dewey to shake hands. Police estimated that more than 500 had turned out.

Three members of the "Dewey team" joined the governor in a large G.O.P. meeting at Utica last night. They were Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley, candidate for the U. S. Senate; Comptroller Frank C. Moore, nominee for Lieutenant governor; and State Senator J. Raymond McGovern, comptroller candidate. More than 1,000 attended the ballroom rally.

Tests of Education
Dewey, in a statewide broadcast, claimed that his administration had done more for education in the state than had been done in the previous 80 years.

He made one exception. He said the Friedman formula, adopted in 1927 to allot state financial aid to common schools, was "a great achievement" of former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, who he interpreted as a Republican today.

Dewey made a sweeping review of his administration's record on education. He said the state university system, now two years old, was "a great achievement."

Hanley Is 'Youngest'
Man Dewey Knows

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 10 (AP)—Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley, described by Governor Dewey as "the youngest man I know," swung into this college city today on his campaign for election to the U. S. Senate. The 74-year-old Republican nominee appeared with Dewey last night at Utica. It was during a question-and-answer radio broadcast there that Hanley was asked about his age and Dewey "batted in" to say:

"I've listened to all this tripe for a good many months, and I'm sick of it. Joe Hanley, in Albany for many years. He is the youngest man I know in spirit and body."

Dewey remarked that Hanley's Democratic opponent, Senator Herbert H. Lehman, was 72 and that the American Labor party candidate, Charles DuBois, was 82.

Flanders Says U. S.
May Head Off Need
For Price ControlsMaybank Declares He Believes Controls
Should Come
Quickly

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) said today the government still may head off the need for price controls and rationing if it moves fast enough on other fronts to combat inflation.

On the other hand, Senator Maybank (D-S. C.) said in a separate interview he believes controls and higher corporation taxes should come soon and as close together as possible.

One new set of drastic curbs—aimed at slowing up the pace of private home building—was in immediate prospect. Interested federal agencies were finishing work on new regulations, and prospects were that they may be issued tonight.

They were reported in advance to contain restrictions not only on government insured or guaranteed mortgages, but also on privately written mortgages. They are expected to provide for a 10 per cent down payment by veterans and down payments ranging from 15 to 20 per cent—up as high as 50 per cent on luxury housing—for non-veterans.

On the question of other anti-inflation moves, Senator Flanders said the government might head off the need for price controls by sharply boosting corporation taxes, again and offering special inducements to stimulate the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds.

He suggested that the Treasury Department pledge that Savings Bonds will be redeemed when they mature with dollars having purchasing power equal to the money invested in them now. Such a pledge, Flanders said, would be a powerful stimulant to the current bond drive.

There was some evidence, meanwhile, of a slight slowdown in the rate at which government savings bonds are being cashed in. Treasury officials reported yesterday that cash-ins of Series E bonds in September stripped new purchases for the fifth consecutive month. The margin, however, was smaller than in recent months. Cash-ins were particularly heavy in July and August.

Officials speculated the reason was an effort by consumers to buy goods in advance of credit curbs or possible shortages.

Local police are investigating the source of a shot which struck LeRoy Harvey, 39, of 46 Locust avenue, as he was operating a saw in his yard yesterday afternoon.

Officers Frank Sammons and Leonard Ellsworth were dispatched to Harvey's house when the incident was reported at 4:55 p. m.

Harvey said he had felt a sharp pain in his back while he was at work and when he went into the house he found a 22 calibre pellet had broken the skin but did not penetrate the flesh. The police report said the force of the bullet had apparently been spent.

A search of the area failed to indicate the source of the shot, and Harvey told the officers that as conditions exist in the neighborhood which needs to be investigated. Local detectives were notified.

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—President Truman will meet with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in the Pacific this coming week-end.

White House sources said arrangements have just been completed for a conference of the President and the commander of the United Nations forces.

They said it will be held "somewhere in the Pacific" but did not disclose whether it will be aboard a navy ship or at an island.

Details for the meeting have not been completed, these sources said. When details are complete, the White House will have an announcement.

It was learned the President will go directly to the rendezvous from St. Louis where he is flying tomorrow to witness the installation of his sister, Miss Mary Jane Truman, as worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The White House sources which gave this word to reporters declined to elaborate on the occasion for the meeting. They would not answer any questions.

To Address Assembly
The President will address the United Nations General Assembly Oct. 24. It is to be a major foreign policy address.

Possibly one purpose of the Truman-MacArthur meeting is to review the whole Pacific situation before that address. MacArthur is the United Nations commander in Korea.

MacArthur and the Truman administration have disagreed over policy toward Formosa, island stronghold of the Chinese Nationalist government.

MacArthur has taken the position that it is essential to the United States' Far Pacific defense line that Formosa be kept out of unfriendly hands. The administration position is that Formosa's future is a matter for the United Nations to decide.

President Truman directed MacArthur during the summer to withdraw a letter the general had sent to the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Chicago setting forth his views on Formosa.

For MacArthur, it will be his second mid-Pacific conference with a President and his commander-in-chief. He and President Roosevelt held a meeting of strategy during World War Two. MacArthur has not been to the United States in more than a decade.

Promises to Clear

Promoted Deliberately to Undermine
New Law

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—The State Department has promised to clear up within a few days confusion about the status of aliens entering this country since enactment of the new anti-subversives law.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) asserted yesterday that the confusion is being promoted deliberately in an effort to "undermine" the law, which Congress put on the books over President Truman's veto.

Directly at issue is a provision which bars from this country members and former members of the Nazi, Fascist and Communist parties and affiliated organizations.

One case was cleared up yesterday with the release from Ellis Island, where he had been held for three days, of Friedrich Guida, 40-year-old Austrian pianist who acknowledged he was a member of the Hitler Youth Organization when he was 10.

Guida said he never attended a Nazi meeting or parade. He was released with the understanding that he will leave the country next Saturday.

Ferguson, who is in Michigan, issued a statement through his office here before learning of Guida's release. In it he said the new Anti-Subversives Act, which he helped to write, allows the attorney general to admit any alien whose presence would not endanger the public safety.

"It is evident that the administration is undertaking to pervert the administration of the law by the use of the discretion which the law would work undue hardship in extreme cases," Ferguson said.

"If this is a worthy case, it is to be regretted that in attempting to undermine a law which is designed to protect the security of the United States from subversives, the administration has failed to exercise the discretionary power which the act provides for."

Justice Department officials said it is true that the attorney general has discretion to make exceptions. But they added that when he does so—even on a temporary basis—he must give Congress a full explanation.

State Department Press Officer Michael McDermott told reporters that regulations for admission of aliens under the new law will be worked out soon.

Will Complete Work
Work on the revamping of the state route through Phenicia is expected to be completed by the end of this week, a state public works official said today. The main street of the village has been widened and new sidewalks installed. The entire project, including clean-up work is expected to be finished "before snow flies," the official said.

French Begin Their Work
To Get U. S. Cash for Arms

Washington, Oct. 10 (AP)—The French government has begun to lay the groundwork for a detailed request for American funds to help finance the first year of France's stepped-up rearmament program.

French financial experts have started presenting initial figures to the State Department in preparation for the arrival Thursday of French Finance Minister Maurice Feteche.

Feteche will sum up France's case during a round of conferences with top American officials including Secretary of the Treasury Snyder and Secretary of State Acheson.

The French request is reported to cover the amount of money France believes she will need during the 1951 fiscal year to start her on the self-imposed task of creating, equipping and maintaining 15 new army divisions.

The French government, responding to an American plea for higher defense spending, has announced its readiness to undertake a $3,710,000,000 rearmament program to strengthen western Europe.

The French plan would add some 250,000 men to the 650,000 now in the French armed forces. A good part of this present army is tied up in Indo-China fighting the Communists. What the United States is expected to contribute to make this expanded rearmament program possible has not yet been spelled out.

Moscow, Oct. 10 (AP)—Russia charged today that two American fighter planes strafed and damaged a Soviet airfield near the key Siberian seaport of Vladivostok last Sunday.

(In Tokyo, an official U. S. Air Force spokesman said he is "unable to comment at this time" on the Russian assertion.)

A Russian protest note was proffered to U. S. Minister-Counselor Walworth Barbour last night by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The note placed the incident 62 miles north of the Soviet-Korean border.

It demanded "strict punishment" for the "responsible personnel" and American assurances against such incidents in the future.

The note said two F-80 Shooting Star jets machinegunned an airfield in the Sukhaya Rechka area at 4:37 a. m. (local time) Sunday. Sukhaya Rechka is across Novik Bay from Vladivostok and about 18 miles southwest of that important Siberian rail and shipping terminus.

Hit by Truck

Francis Joseph Dinan, 55, a transient farm laborer for whom no home address is available, was killed instantly as he was crossing Route 9W at Milton about 10 o'clock Monday night.

Dinan is the 28th person to meet death in a motor vehicle accident in this county since January 1.

Coroner Ernest A. Kelly has issued a tentative verdict of accidental death. An autopsy has been ordered for today.

State police from the Highland sub-station said Dinan was crossing the highway from east to west near the intersection of Route 9W and the Milton turnpike.

Troopers said he was struck by a two-ton van operated by George W. Pitcher, 35, of Canton. Pitcher was not held.

The body was turned over to the J. Perry Woolsey Funeral Home at Milton pending the autopsy and attempts to locate relatives.

Troopers said that they have not yet been able to determine the man's home address nor the names and addresses of any relatives.

State police from Highland learned in their investigation that Dinan, walking on the highway, weaved in front of the truck.

Coroner Kelly said Dinan apparently was under the influence of liquor.

Has Ignored Ultimatum
The Red high command has ignored the ultimatum. But Communist troops were surrendering in increasing numbers that have swelled the allied prisoner bag to more than 55,000.

From Wonsan, the R.O.K.s are in position to swing 95 miles straight west across the narrow waist of the peninsula to Pyongyang.

U. S. First Cavalry troops who charged across the border on a 25-mile front near Kaesong were 25 miles into Red Korea along the main highway, to the vicinity of Simchon.

Two other columns moved out to the left and right of this force. One crossed the Yesong river, 10 miles west of Kaesong, smashed three Red counterattacks and drove into Red Korea on a northwest tangent.

The other wheeled to the vicinity of Panbu, 15 miles northwest of Kaesong. Panbu has just north of parallel 38.

General MacArthur's Tuesday war summary said small gains were made against "suburban enemy resistance supported by small arms, mortar and artillery fire."

British and Australian troops were committed to the advancing allied force in this sector, but a spokesman said he could not say whether they were inside Red Korea yet.

Tokyo, Oct. 10 (AP)—South Koreans captured the prize Red Korean port and arsenal city of Wonsan today after smashing the heaviest opposition they have encountered above Parallel 38.

To the southwest, U. S. First Cavalry foot troopers ran into fierce resistance just north of 38. The cavalry's advance with tanks, artillery and air support was slowed to a crawl against log pillbox positions set up before the war.

Wonsan is about 105 miles north of 38 and 95 miles almost due east of the Communist capital, Pyongyang.

It was the center of oil refining in Korea before repeated B-29 strikes smashed its industrial facilities. The port has one of the best natural harbors in the country, the peninsula of the northward on Wonsan's east side was once a Japanese naval station.

Wonsan Red-Defended
Wonsan had been Red-protected, and Communist prisoners as a place where North Koreans hoped to make a major defense effort.

But it fell after day and night fighting, street by street, before the rapidly advancing liberators. Allied officers thought the mop-up would be complete some time Wednesday.

Two days before the end of the 120 mile battlefront, the Reds stalled the first cross-border smash of American troops along a 25 mile front near Kaesong.

Twenty thousand other Red Korean forces hunt the R.O.K. drive in the peninsula of the northward on Wonsan's east side was once a Japanese naval station.

While fighting raged all along the Red Korean battlefront, an allied transport plane shot a loudspeaker over isolated Red pockets, calling for surrender. It promised food and humane treatment.

General MacArthur's "last time" surrender ultimatum boomed out over the airborne hailer in a new phase of psychological warfare.

The Red high command has ignored the ultimatum. But Communist troops were surrendering in increasing numbers that have swelled the allied prisoner bag to more than 55,000.

Marine Recruiter

T/SGT. HENRY STEE

Technical Sergeant Henry J. Stee will be in the Kingston Post Office every Monday from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. to interview young men for possible enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps.

T/Sgt. Stee was born May 27, 1921, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stee of 105 Delafield street, Poughkeepsie. He enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps July 10, 1939 and received his training at the Marine Recruit depot, Parris Island, S. C. He served in the U. S. A., and then was stationed in the Panama Canal Zone, at the outbreak of the last war.

Upon his return to the states, he attended the Infantry Instruction School at Camp Lejeune, N. C. He took part in the forming of the 29th Marine Regiment, which later was a unit of the 6th Marine Division. He took part in the invasion of Okinawa, where he was awarded the Bronze Star for heroic action.

He went with the Division to Tsingtau, China where they served as occupation troops and returned to the states in April, 1946. Sgt. Stee then was stationed in North Carolina. At the present he is on recruiting duty at the Marine Recruiting Station P. O. Building Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

T/Sgt. Stee also revealed this morning that the Marine Corps is accepting enlistments in the Women's Marines for women between 18 and 30 years of age. Women enlistees between 18 and 21 must have their parents' consent, however, he pointed out.

These enlistees must have no dependents, and a high school education or its equivalent. He said that there are good chances for women enlistees for advancement in aviation, communication and clerical fields.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Oct. 9—Ralph B. Thompson of Pine Hill, collector of the Ontario central school district, held a tax sitting at Winchell's Store Thursday. The new collector handled the business without assistance—and unusual occurrence in these parts.

Mrs. Joseph H. Hill who died at her home in Kingston Tuesday is well remembered by the older residents of this section where she resided for many years previous to her marriage. The former Margaret Wolven was a sister of Dr. Wolven, who practiced at Shokan and Boiceville. Her early life was spent in the old village of Boiceville, and in later years, before moving to Kingston in waterworks days, she and her husband had a farm along the Watson Hollow Road.

Wednesday, Oct. 11, will mark the 67th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson, Old Hurley couple whose farm home 40 years ago and more was near West Shokan village. Mrs. Lawson, whose maiden name was Caroline Ennist, was a member of the Shokan Reformed Church choir during the pastorate of the Rev. Charles Palmer.

Two unusual tractor accidents up the line: While William Laughman, Weaver Hollow farmer in the Margaretville area, was cranking his tractor the machine's backfire threw him heavily to the ground, fracturing his thigh. He will not be able to work for many weeks and that is going to be tough on the Weaver family who keep 47 cows. Up at Little Wallkill, several men were riding a tractor en route to a woodlot when in going up the mountain a skid chain caught in a root, tipping the machine over backward. Fortunately, none of the men was killed though two were painfully injured in this freak accident.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lambert, New York couple who recently were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lawlor, became parents of twin daughters on September 26. The new arrivals in the Lambert home were named Leon and Abigail.

Olive residents attending the recent dinner in honor of Walter A. Lynch in Kingston included the following: Robert Haver, Olive Democratic chairman and state committeeman; Grover Winchell and Robert Vollmer, committeemen from the third Olive district; Mr. and Mrs. James Bush of Brown's, and Mrs. J. North, Mrs. W. Stevens and Mrs. E. Lawlor, members of the women's county Democratic club.

Henry Berenstein, Phoenixia game warden, was a caller here Tuesday in the line of duty. Officer Berenstein, though a young fellow, has made quite a name for himself; it was he who early in the open season apprehended and brought to justice a party of seven Delaware county men who were about to have a fish fry with short-length brook trout, at their camp three miles from the nearest road. An unpleasant situation developed back there in the wilds, but the law finally triumphed and the fishermen later were fined $300 and had their licence privilege taken away for five years.

Birthdays coming on next week include that of Otto Rast, Ontario Trail farmer and entomologist who with his wife came here from New York four years ago. He was born, 1874, on the Polish border, studied mechanical engineering, came to this country in 1908, became a foreman in the manufacture of operating tables and later worked as a tool and die-maker for the Navy Department. Otto has a wonderful collection of butterflies which at one time numbered 12,000 specimens. He gave 2,000 of them to the Cardinal Hayes school for boys; World War

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

THE UNDERGROUNDS

I once heard Countess Tolstoy ask why the United States, in all our troubles with Russia, does not use the knowledge and abilities of anti-Stalinist Russians. Our State Department has apparently rejected them.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, recently raised this issue again. He said: "One of Hitler's most glaring errors in World War II was his stupid handling of the millions of anti-Communist Russians who hated their Russian rulers so much that they welcomed the German conquerors with open arms. One of the most famous Russian anti-Communist leaders was General Vlasov, who organized an army of non-Communist Russians to fight on the German side. I saw some of these Vlasov soldiers at the time of the invasion of southern France. They were in German uniform and appeared to be Mongolians. There were several millions of anti-Communist men available but Hitler did not have enough professional officers, who spoke their language and knew their customs, to organize them into effective military formations and lead them in combat."

Actually, it is estimated that there are about 2,000,000 such men available. Many of them, I am told, are Ukrainians with underground connections in their mother country. The Hungarian underground is particularly active and effective. In fact, there is a Hungarian government-in-exile in the United States that is directing a movement in that country.

Such movements as these are naturally not readily describable since open activity on their part would nullify the value of their work. But government agencies could be able to establish close contacts with them. More could be accomplished through such men, with all the bitterness that must be in their hearts at the fate of their countries, than in current American propaganda activities which seem to get nowhere.

The army now has authority to enlist 2,500 aliens. When the bill on this subject was passed by the Senate, there was authority for 25,000 aliens but this figure was whittled down. Considering the possibilities, 2,500 is not enough. Some day, this country will reluctantly recruit Japanese, Germans, and Formosan Chinese, not as mercenaries, but as high-minded, anti-Communist fighters who seek to join in the struggle against the despoiler of their peoples.

Many such men are veterans of wars, professional officers who can find no outlets for their abilities, experts in a variety of fields—men who can be of the greatest service to us.

There will be some who will say that our experience with atom bomb scientists should discourage us from trusting aliens too far. The fact is that in the case of Dr. Klaus Fuchs, an alien found guilty of espionage, and Dr. David Greenglass, who should have been no possibility of error. Dr. Fuchs's history, as disclosed at his trial in London, should have been known to British and American security officers. The fact that they were careless or even favorably disposed toward Russia and the Communists should not lead us into false conclusions about using aliens to fight Russia or her satellites.

In the atom bomb instances, those in charge, including Senator Brian McMahon's Senate watchdog committee, failed properly to screen the aliens. We must assume that their carelessness will not be a pattern for the armed services for all time, and that adequate screening is to be expected hereafter. Certainly, there can no longer be any excuse for a Klaus Fuchs, not even the excuse that a President like Franklin D. Roosevelt said this:

"We should as actively seek instead the help of selected alien soldiers on the same voluntary basis which actuated the countless aliens who fought for our country during the War of the Revolution, the Mexican War, the Civil War, and thereafter. It is safe to say that we could not have made our greatest gains in these wars without the alien soldier, fighting on a voluntary basis in the uniform of the United States. In all our wars we have welcomed allies who fight at our side under their own flag and in the uniform of their own country. We should not reject—indeed we should warmly welcome—the individual ally who wears our uniform and fights under our flag. We should sense the immense difference between the mercenary hiring and the volunteer citizen candidate for which our present law provides." (Copyright, 1950, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

That Body of Yours

PENICILLIN AND DIPHTHERIA CARRIERS

It is known that an individual with little or no evidence of any throat ailment may still be a carrier of diphtheria and actually transmit it to others. I have mentioned the case of a near relative who had a little hacking cough but no membrane on his throat. His physician took a swab of his throat, found diphtheria organisms, and ordered him quarantined in a hospital. As he was not sick, had no fever, and was not using voice, because he was a carrier, he was a menace to others.

Every physician and medical student has heard of Typhoid Mary, who, although free of typhoid fever, infected members of every family for whom she worked as a cook.

Fortunately with the discovery of penicillin, many carriers are rendered safe to mix with others. In the Journal of Pediatrics, Stockholm, Dr. G. O. Ohlberg reports on 98 carriers of diphtheria bacilli who did not have diphtheria or who had the actual illness at least six weeks previously. Eighty-seven were carriers of the light type, one of the intermediate type, and 10 of the severe or heavy type. Fifty-one had the virulent or powerful organisms at the time penicillin treatment was started. Ninety-five carriers were given injections of penicillin into the muscles in varying doses.

Eighty-four out of 200,000 units four times every 24 hours seems a suitable dose for adults. Treatment should be continued for a sufficient length of time so that three swabs of the throat in succession (taken every third day) should show no organisms present before the penicillin is discontinued. In some cases four or even five negative cultures should be obtained before stopping penicillin.

Forty-two of 48 carriers with positive throat cultures and 19 of 50 carriers with positive nose cultures (diphtheria organisms found in the nose) became free of the organisms by means of the penicillin treatment. Penicillin aerosol (fine spray) inhaled killed the diphtheria organisms in two of four cases. In these two cases all other methods had failed to kill the diphtheria organisms.

This means that penicillin can prevent many individuals from developing diphtheria from carriers.

Democratic Party in Ohio Is in Position of Accepting Labor Thesis of Selecting Senator

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 10.—The people of the state of Ohio have before them a decision this autumn which may well affect the course of events in the United States for many generations to come.

For if the people of Ohio decide that the labor unions shall choose the senators from Ohio hereafter, members of Congress from other states may feel that this is the way to get elected. Out of it could come a government controlled primarily by labor unions.

The Democratic Party in Ohio is in the position of accepting the labor-union thesis. It means that, in due time, the party machinery will be taken over by the labor unions and nominations hereafter will be dictated by the union bosses.

The amount of money and organization pressure being put into the state of Ohio by the labor-union chiefs in order to push Senator Robert Taft for his re-election is unprecedented in any senatorial election in history. For if the Republicans make some gains in both the Senate and House in November, this will be less impressive than the defeat of Senator Taft.

Mr. Taft's principal crime evidently is that he tried to hold the scales even between management and labor. His own bill passed by the Senate was far more palatable to labor than the one which was sponsored by Representative Hartley but which had to be taken into consideration by the joint conference committee in writing the final law. The labor unions nevertheless have concentrated their attack on Senator Taft just the same.

Throughout the entire session of Congress which recently ended, the labor-union leaders were so completely in control of the congressional machinery that they did not a single vote on amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act was permitted in either House. The plain purpose was to make an issue of the law as it was passed, even though the need for some amendments was conceded and a union was ready to adopt such improvements.

The substitute which the labor unions want, of course, is the old Wagner Act, which was a one-sided affair that caused plenty of labor-management friction.

What part did Mr. Taft's advice along the Communist line of political and economic philosophy play in the picture of the C.I.O.? When the C.I.O., in recent years, under its present leadership, expelled the Communists from its ranks whenever it was able to detect them, what did it learn of Communist influence in labor-union policies? Instead of telling the whole story of communism in labor's ranks, the labor chiefs have decided to try to fasten on Senator Taft the accusation that he pays Russia's pawns.

This unjust and malicious kind of attack apparently captured the mind of Averell Harriman, the assistant secretary on foreign policy. Did the labor leaders motivate the writing of that speech? It was not just a coincidence that the Harriman address was delivered at a convention of the A.F.L.

The strategy of the labor leaders has been clear ever since the open, unprejudiced and many independent voters would not be swayed on labor-union issues alone as they have tried instead to pin the label of aid-to-Russia on one of the most patriotic and conscientious public servants in America.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, Oct. 9.—

John Chapman, Drama Critic, The Daily News, New York.

Dear Jack:

I am intervening as amicus curiae in your controversy with the publication called Counterattack which turned out a directory reporting to show connections, affiliations or associations of individuals in radio with Communist organizations, transmission belts, apparatuses and the like.

You have published an open letter to Counterattack in which you told your golden curls and pull a mouse and stamp a foot in mightily defiance of the forces of ignorance and bigotry, calling their directors Red Channels and I understand that one female whose name was mentioned in connection with several outfalls was waived out of her job in a radio program. Now the traitors of the radio and theatre and Hollywood are reaping, as they say, in North Korea, a dire counter-attack on Counterattack.

I do not allege that this dame was a Communist nor do I understand that Red Channels alleged that she was. But I won't take your opinion that any individual is not a Communist unless you deal honestly with the cited facts.

We are old friends and I hope this will not impair that friendship. But when you throw in with that side of this proposition you commit the overt act. You know where I have stood all along. I didn't take the 34th Parallel to teach me that communism is the enemy of my country and my people and of western civilization and of liberties that you enjoy while you seem to me to make snoots at those who hold them dear.

In your open letter to the Counterattack people you wrote, "I have been told that you are preparing a similar book which will include subversives in the legitimate theatre. Since I am a drama critic, I am qualified as a worker in the theatre and I feel sure I can also qualify for a listing in your valuable directory."

Then, as material for a " dossier" on yourself, you state that you have consorted with and publicly admired many people of the theatre who are already listed in Red Channels and that you are potentially much the more dangerous because your statements are printed in the paper which has the largest circulation in the country.

Well, now you asked for it! When, Mr. Pegler, or, as we used to call him, started the New York Daily News, he brought on a little girl from Chicago named Mabel McElliot, who had been a stenographer and didn't know a dam thing about writing for the newspaper business, to be his movie critic because she had a few movie credits and was a member of the non-professional movie customer. I do not mean to disparage Mabel's intellect or the professional ability which she later developed, but she was utterly innocent of the pseudo-intellectual criticisms of most critics of the stage, the screen and the radio. She was a good girl, a good agent for a lot of hams and bleeding-heart propositions. She got married after a while to Dick Clarke, now the managing editor of your Daily News, and Jump put in another innocent babe named Irene Thayer to succeed her. You were on the paper on those days and ought to remember.

So when you write that "being a drama critic, I can qualify as a worker in the theatre," and go on from there to boast of your intimacy with Herman Shumlin, Lillian Hellman and Garson Kanin, you prove that Joe knew what he was talking about. What makes you think you are a " worker in the theatre?" Where do you get such illusions, anyway? Have you gone nuts? If you are working "in the theatre" you ought to get out of that critic's job, because a critic who considers himself a worker in the theatre is in a position similar to that of an apartment owner who owns a piece of a light club or a heavyweight contender.

Jump used to say, "I want my critics to stay in front of the footlights" and his position was much more important in that respect than any of us realized at the time. But we do realize it now. Some name of one of these reporters with grease paint pockers and Kleenex eyes have the effrontery to execute in their newspaper pieces the spirit of your boast of your dangerous potentialities. Jump wouldn't let a critic go backstage or hang out with actors.

So you boast of your friendship with John Garfield, do you? Well, then, why don't you summarize the information on this fellow

Court of Claims Hears Suit Asking $200,714 Damages

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—Trial of a $200,714 suit against the State of New York in the death of Ernest Parker, 23, allegedly the victim of a blood plasma containing jaundice germs, began in the State Court of Claims.

His wife, Ruth, 28, of South Salem, N. Y., maintains that Parker, a mechanic and World War 2 veteran, was given the plasma at Northern Westchester Hospital, Mount Kisco, after suffering injuries in an auto accident November 21, 1948.

The suit claims that "the State Department of Health neglected and failed to use ordinary care and reasonable precautions to render said blood plasma safe and suitable for use and free of harmful and dangerous germs and failed to treat said plasma prior to furnishing the same for use."

Parker returned home eight days after receiving the pooled blood plasma and returned to the hospital Feb. 11. He died the next day of jaundice.

Legion Stages Annual Parade

Los Angeles, Oct. 10 (AP)—The national American Legion convention called a halt to business sessions today to stage a mammoth six-hour parade designed to accent the need for continued national preparedness.

The stream of perhaps 50,000 uniformed men and women will include tanks, armored equipment and troops of the 13th Armored Reserve Division, underlying warnings of convention speakers against smugness over the Korean victories.

At the opening of the 32nd annual convention yesterday, speakers expressed satisfaction over the Korean war but warned that Russia is still on the march.

In a message read on the convention floor, Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall urged the Legion to help "overcome the vigorous opposition of small minorities" opposed to universal military training.

"We must not give way to the heavy pressures to relax our vigilance or emasculate our strength," he declared.

Maj. Gen. William Donovan, commander of the Office of Strategic Services in World War 2, described this nation's preparedness program as "an effort to compel Stalin to a peace—the only kind of peace we can get today, a peace by compulsion in the face of our strength and power."

He said the people in the Orient and the west realize, as a result of the Korean war, "that in the Far East at least, the time table of Soviet conquest has been gummed up."

Luis Budenz, former editor of the Communists' Daily Worker and now a Fordham University professor, said recognition of Red China—the chief aim of Russia—would be a "terrible blow to American security, especially to the west coast."

As Pegler Sees It

When you refer to so intimately as "Julie" which was gathered by the Committee on Un-American Activities? The same as to your friends Shumlin and Hellman. Have you ceased to be a newspaper reporter since you became a "worker in the theatre"? Or is it your position that such details are not pertinent? If not, why not? You workers "in the theatre" certainly can't avail yourselves of a claim that such information is too trivial in view of the personal drive with which you constantly foul up expensive newspaper.

A friend of mine, a polite comedian of good renown, called up after he read your piece and asked: "Hey, how do I go about getting my name into Red Channels? I haven't had a good job in two years and those people work the year around."

Did it ever occur to you to strike a blow for those actors who can't get work because they have openly fought against communism?

You know what? I will tell you what. You "critics" who are "of the theatre" and the screen and radio-television ought to get yanked regularly six months out of every year and put back on general assignments, re-write or the run. Be good for you. Teach you what the newspaper business really ought to be.

"Worker in the theatre!" Can I come up and read your scrapbook sometime? As ever, Peg.

Looking for POWER?

Better Buy Buick!

That bold bonnet that stretches out before your eyes on a 1950 Buick isn't there just for show.

Lift it up, and you'll find that the space beneath is abundantly occupied, by one of the biggest hoodfuls of power you'll find in any motorcar.

What you're looking at is Buick's modern version of the high-compression valve-in-head engine, which gains extra wallop from the fact that it uses the exclusive Fireball combustion principle.

We could list a lot of mechanical reasons why fuel gives up extra power in a Fireball engine—how it's wrapped in a swirling, ball-shaped charge—how it burns with a smooth, clean thrust that delivers maximum action.

But the best way to find out what all this means is to touch off the eager horsepower out on the highway by a gentle nudge of your toe—and feel your shoulders press deep in the cushions behind them.

Now all this sounds thrilling, you say, but how about the feed-bills for all these horses? How about miles-per-gallon?

The practical answer to that one is found in this year's experience with the SUPER and SPECIAL—and even the ROADMASTER. In all three, the horsepower was stepped up at the start of the year—and in all three, happy owners report the best mileage in modern Buick experience.

This is due to a little-known but authentic engineering fact—which is that an engine burns less gas when it doesn't have to labor. At any normal driving speed, therefore, extra power is extra thrifty.

So we say again—if you're looking for power—mighty power—buoyant power—silken power—thrifty power—better buy Buick.

Your Buick dealer is eager for the chance to demonstrate how sound this hint really is.

Said Mrs. Cannibal: "My man Just lives on tea and toddy, I cook up everything I can, But he won't eat anybody."

Friend—I thought your minister was to have a call to Minneapolis? George—He did expect it, but he went up there to preach a trial sermon and took his text from St. Paul, so it's all off.

Typographical errors are always amusing. More so, when they relate to the town. The Wichita (Kansas) Eagle reported: "Dr. S. — one of our most eligible bachelors, is retiring from practice, ill and heavy at 65. Doc say all he wants is a little peach and quiet."

Customer (on the telephone)—Three of those apples you sent me were rotten. I am bringing them back.

Storekeeper — That's all right, madam. You needn't bring them back. Your word is just as good as the apples.

Employer (to office boy, who is half an hour late)—You should have been here at nine o'clock.

Office Boy — Why, what happened?

From life's little book of tears and laughter we have gained this little bit of lore—We'd rather have a morning after than never have a night before.

Strange but true enough, the dislike of Americans is said to be increasing in various countries of Europe. What a travesty, when the American taxpayers pour out billions for ill-will.

Mother — Now, Willie I want you to go in and get acquainted with the new nurse, and kiss her nicely.

Willie — Yes and get my face slapped like daddy did.

Canvasser—May I have a few minutes of your time?

Prospect — Yes if you will be brief. What can I do for you?

I'm a man of few words.

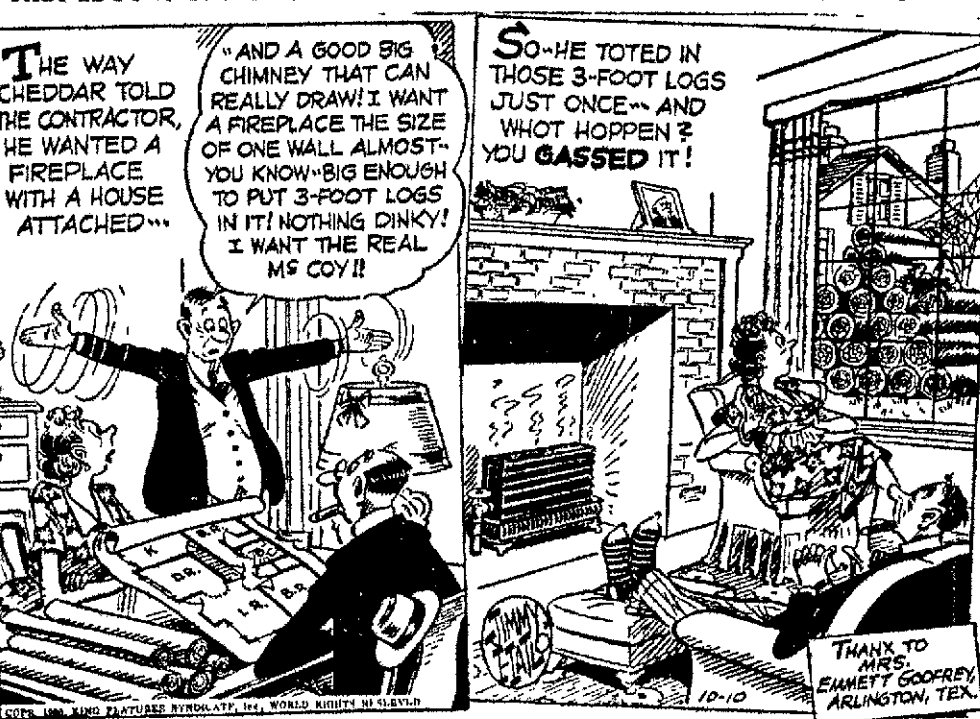

Canvasser — Just the man I'm looking for, my specialty is dictionaries.

Teacher—Who are two famous generals?

Pupil — General Motors and General Electric, both have lots of power.

Written for NEA Service
Optimistic Oliver looked at the dummy, gaped a couple of times and started his apology.

"Partner, I rather hoped you might have a little more. As it is we will still make our contract with a little luck, provided that old Dan has a good double for a change."

Doubling Dan said nothing but already he was sorry that he had doubled and he was going to be a lot sorer before the hand was over.

Before making his speech Oliver had decided to play Doubling Dan for all three of the missing kings. In that case he saw how to make the contract sure, provided that Dan's spade holding was not four or five to be king ten.

Oliver won the opening club lead with the ace and played a low spade toward the jack in dummy. Dan went right up with the king; it would have done him no good to play low and led a second club. Oliver won with the jack, ran three small tricks discarding the deuce of diamonds from dummy, cashed his ace of hearts, and ran the club suit.

He discarded down to the ace queen of diamonds on the clubs and poor Dan was squeezed. He had to hold the king of hearts and hence was forced to blank his king of diamonds whereupon Oliver's ace and queen took the last two tricks.

Dan's double of the six no-trump contract was a perfectly horrible bid. True, with three kings in back of an opening three no-trump bid he was entitled to think that he would set the contract. On the other hand it was a lead pipe cinch that his partner would hold an absolute bust and the chances were that Dan would not make all three of his kings. Hence he was doubling in an effort to gain a mere fifty points. As against this possible fifty-point gain he was giving the declarer a line on how to play the hand.

Oliver might have made the hand without the double but the chances are he would have tried the simple play of an immediate heart finesse. If that finesse worked he would have his twelve tricks easily. If it failed he would be able to make the hand only if East held king and one spade.

Mrs. Oscar B. London Heads Campaign As Hadassah Opens New Member Drive

A worldwide campaign, aimed at enrolling every Jewish woman in Kingston in the Kingston Chapter of Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, was launched yesterday at a Hadassah breakfast for organization workers at the Rinal Biltz building, with Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk as guest of honor.

In addressing the group, the mayor tackled the familiar question of whether, since a free state has been established for the Jews in other lands, it is still necessary to continue Zionist and Hadassah organizations in America. In answer, he quoted National Hadassah President Mrs. Rose I. Halprin who said, "For the discernible future Israel must be able to count on Jews in other countries, especially America, for more than money and capital investments, more than technical skills and know-how, Israel needs Jews who have more than a platonic interest in its welfare and development. It needs the overtones of understanding and sympathy which exist only among Jews whose sense of identification with Israel as a historic concept in Jewish development made them Zionists in the first instance.

"This, Mayor Newkirk felt, 'should be your answer as to whether you should continue and should be the answer to the Jewish women in the community for joining Hadassah. The people in the state of Israel need your organization, and its moral support will build a greater State of Israel, bringing joy to all the Jews of the world.'

Underlining the urgency for a successful drive, campaign chairman Mrs. Oscar B. London told the group, "1950 is a year of decision for Hadassah. Until peace treaties with the Arab countries are signed, until Israel is surrounded with sympathetic neighbors, Americans must continue to mobilize physical and spiritual resources to help the young republic survive as a stronghold of democracy in the Middle East. Against a backdrop of floodlike immigration, which is taxing the young republic to the utmost, there is even greater need than previously for Hadassah to step up its health, welfare, and vocational services. If these newcomers are to be prepared for constructive citizenship, they must be helped from the moment they set their weary feet on Israel's soil. Hadassah has done its share of service for nearly 35 years. It must continue to live up to the high standards it has established. Every new member will help make that task easier."

The membership drive, slated to continue through tomorrow, will be carried out by door-to-door canvassing.

Mrs. London is being assisted by the following co-chairmen: Mrs. Sidney Wolf, Mrs. Harold Mandell, Mrs. Louis Schwartz, Mrs. Joseph Epstein, Mrs. Irving Meyer and Mrs. Leo Holtz.

Canvassing workers are: Mrs. Edward Netburn, Mrs. Samuel Gally, Mrs. Joseph Mautner, Mrs. Alfred Ronder, Mrs. Sigmund Rudisch, Mrs. Saul Goldfarb, Mrs. Haskell Nagler, Mrs. Mason Milens, Mrs. Sam Milens, Mrs. Ben Suskind, Mrs. Irving Kreppel, Mrs. Leon Miller, Mrs. Sam Feldman, Mrs. Cople Barnovitz, Mrs. Sam Busch, Mrs. Irving Schwartz, Mrs. Harry Feldman, Mrs. Harry Spiesman, Mrs. Harry Strofer, Mrs. Leon Gray, Mrs. Ben Orkoff, Mrs. Ben Fishkin, Mrs. Morris Berman, Mrs. George Farber, Mrs. Leon Greenberg, and Mrs. Jay Melton.

The church was decorated with palms and asters for the ceremony, and organist James Sweeney played suitable wedding selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white satin gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and a cathedral train. The neckline was trimmed with lace and rhinestones, while her three-quarter length illusion veil was caught to a crown of rhinestones, and she carried a cascade of fleur-de-mour.

For their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hastings visited the Pocono Mountains. The bride's traveling ensemble consisted of a green suit with brown accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from New Paltz High School, and attended the Moran-Sponcerian School of Business.

The groom attended Commerce High School, New York, and served for 27 months in the armed services.

20th Century Hears Talk on Clocks, and British Pioneers

An address on "Clocks" by Mrs. George N. Wood, and on "Our British Pioneers," by Mrs. Thomas D. Edmonston highlighted the last meeting of the 20th Century Club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Boerker, 180 Wrentham street.

Tracing the evolution of clocks from primitive to modern times, Mrs. Wood pointed out that even men invented the first primitive timepiece by knotting a grass rope at intervals, then setting fire to it. As the flame burned upwards and consumed each knot, he knew how much time had elapsed. Following the rope clock Mrs. Wood then described the water-clock, one of the earliest mechanical timepieces, which Plato introduced to Greece. There were also candles, hour glasses and sundials.

Boethius, she explained is reputed originator of the first wheel clock in 510 A.D., while in the Science Museum, South Kensington, there is a clock made by Peter Lightfoot dated 1335.

Mrs. Wood also enumerated clock cases, many similar to the grandfather clocks of colonial times. But it wasn't, she stressed, until 1838 that brass movements were placed in clocks, while the first perpetual motion clock dates back only as far as 1860. That morning, she said, the shrill alarm clock was unheard of until its debut in 1876. The largest clock in the world today, she continued, tells out the hours to metropolitan New Yorkers from its perch high on the Metropolitan Life Building.

Mrs. Edmonston's remarks recalled the familiar story of Sir Walter Raleigh and the London Company's settlement in 1612. She traced Pilgrim settlements in New England, and quoted from Ernest Gebler's "The Plymouth Adventure," which recounts the Pilgrim Fathers' numerous hardships. Mrs. Edmonston also narrated the kidnapping of the Indian, Squanto, by Squanto's learned English and taught early colonists how to plant corn, fish and hunt. Mrs. Edmonston closed with the well loved story of the first Thanksgiving. "As these pioneers raised their banners of true freedom," she told the group, "I realize that in these troubled times their descendants will continue to wave the same banner."

Little Gardens Club Hears S. Clapp Essay

"Flowers of New York State," a paper prepared by Miss Sydney
Clapp and read by Miss Lottie
Johnson, proved background material for the Little Gardens Club meeting last Friday at the home of Miss Beattie Brewster. Seasonal flowers growing throughout the Catskill mountain region were enumerated, with particular emphasis on the towns of Shokan, Saugerties, and Grand Gorge, noted for their profusion of wild blooms.

The paper explained that spring is hailed throughout the area by trailing arbutus, now protected by law, blue and white hepatica, blood root, dogwood, dandelions and purple and white violets, while summer seems spilled out in terms of rebel weed, meadow rue, ladystraw and Queen Anne's lace, which, in the south, is often coupled with gardenias. Other summer flowers, like bluebells, buttercups and clover grow with marked profusion. Mrs. Clapp's paper continued, in the Shokan area. At the same time black eyed Susans are particularly prevalent in Saugerties, and Grand Gorge is known for its golden glow.

Fall comes in with a blaze of golden rod, witch hazel, and asters.

Mrs. Clapp's paper also underlined the important role all these wild flowers, the source of all garden flowers, play.

Following the paper refreshments were served. The table centerpiece featured pink roses in pale pink antique vases.

and guests were introduced to guest artists Mrs. Madeleine teenth century selections, their both its scope, and professional ing. The committee in charge was comprised of Mrs. William Jackson, Mrs. Boyd Williams, Mrs.

panist.

The next meeting of the Music
Appreciation Group is scheduled

Dr. Bibby Speaks To Nursery Mothers

Dr. Henry L. Bibby addressed the Kingston Nursery Mothers last Thursday at their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Levy.

Subject for the noted pediatrician's talk was "What Kind of Awareness in Self Are You Building in Your Child?"

Following Dr. Bibby's remarks a general question period was conducted.

The meeting adjourned after a discussion of nursery affairs, while those who attended felt that the afternoon had proved both interesting and educational.

of LIFE?

Do you suffer from hot flashes, nervous tension, upset emotions—due to functional "change of life" (35 to 42 years)—that period when fertility fades away, when symptoms of this nature often betray your age?
Start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. No other medicine of this type for women has such a long record of success. Taken regularly,
Pinkham's Compound helps build up

Army Replaces Notre Dame As Top Team in Gridiron Poll

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—The midwest's post-war stronghold was broken today and a wide open battle shaped up for national college football honors.

Four-time champion Notre Dame plummeted to tenth place in the weekly Associated Press poll while Army took over as the No. 1 team in the country.

The midlands, which have furnished the mythical titleholder nine of the 15 times since 1936 and continuously since the last war, were out of contention.

Their best showing in the top ten was No. 9, held down by the Purdue team (that splintered Notre Dame's reign with a 28-14 victory last Saturday at South Bend).

The stoutest challenge to Army's position came from the southwest which put three unbeaten teams—Southern Methodist, Oklahoma and Texas—on the Cadets' heels.

Here's the latest rundown of gridiron might, with every section represented.

Army, S.M.U., Oklahoma, Texas, Kentucky, Stanford, California, Maryland, Purdue and Notre Dame.

Army, recognized national champion in 1945, will risk its nearly gained height in New York's Yankee Stadium Saturday against Michigan, co-champion of the Big Ten and tops in the nation in 1948.

The standings are bound to get another good shaking as the result of the big doubleheader show in Dallas.

Oklahoma, No. 3, and Texas, No. 4, collide in a Saturday afternoon game in the Cotton Bowl, while S.M.U., No. 2, entertains unbeaten but once-dethroned Oklahoma A & M there that night.

The rest of the top ten plays lower level opponents, like: Kentucky vs. Cincinnati; Stanford vs. Santa Clara, California; vs. Southern California; Maryland vs. Georgetown; Purdue vs. Miami (Fla.); Notre Dame vs. Tulane.

The top teams (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Army (115)	2,101
2. S.M.U. (53)	1,990
3. Oklahoma (29)	1,387
4. Texas (9)	1,212
5. Kentucky (11)	837
6. Stanford (4)	765
7. California (2)	754
8. Maryland (8)	684
9. Purdue (1)	618
10. Notre Dame (1)	554

11. Washington (2)	444
12. Ohio State (4)	254
13. Clemson (4)	211
14. Tennessee	205
15. Rice (1)	178
16. Wisconsin	178
17. Cornell (2)	174
18. Michigan	164
19. Vanderbilt	142
20. Michigan State	101

Yank Pitcher Gets Physical for Draft

New York, Oct. 10 (AP)—Ed Ford, rookie left-hander who won the World Series-clinching game for the New York Yankees last Saturday, underwent a physical examination today for army service.

The 21-year-old New Yorker had been examined in September but was deferred temporarily because doctors found a trace of some tropical germ in his system.

He won nine games for the Yankees after joining the team in July. He beat the Phillies in the fourth game of the series, 5-2.

GOLDEN SUPERMAN

Golden Superman, one of wrestling's outstanding television stars, will grapple with Pat Muldoon, the Irish strongman, Saturday night at 8:30 when Bill Johnston, Madison Square Garden promoter, offers another card of exhibitions at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium.

Other matches on the card are: Sammy Berg vs. Francois Michel; Hardy Kruscamp vs. Ted Tourtas; Lew Bertucci vs. Harry (Bad Boy) Finkelstein.

All of the wrestlers to appear here are popular on television and Johnston anticipates that many will turn out to see them in person. "There are a lot of new stars coming up in the sport," he said, "and it is my intention to promote all winter in the auditorium."

White Sox Are Still Silent on Manager

Chicago, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox front office still is keeping the identity of the club's 1951 manager a secret.

General Manager Frank Lane and Vice President Chuck Comiskey, who have been given the green light by the board of directors for straightening out managerial problems, plan an announcement "within 48 hours."

There was plenty of unofficial word that the Sox new pilot will be Paul Richards, former big league catcher and manager of the Seattle club in the Pacific Coast League.

Strongest winds were about 100 miles per hour near the center. Hurricane winds extend outward 50 to 75 miles, the weather bureau reported. Winds of gale force extended outward 100 to 150 miles from the center.

Dewey Coins Word For Flynn, Tammany

En route with Dewey, Oct. 10 (AP)—"Flynn" is Governor Dewey's new word to describe what he calls his "Ed Flynn-Tammany Hall-Splitter Party" opponents—the Democrats.

It resulted from a twist of the Dewey tongue in a radio broadcast last night from Utica. Launching into his regular attack on "the Flynn-Tammany bosses," the governor misspoke and "Flynn" was coined.

The audience chuckled. So did Dewey. "That was a good word," he said, "a new word to describe the Ed Flynn, Tammany Hall, Splitter Party crowd."

Dewey Says . . .

was "the grand climax of the Republican program."

After 20 years of Democratic control, ending in 1942, Dewey said "we were the only state without a state university."

"We were even behind Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico," he asserted.

"We are sorry to it," he added, "that every boy and girl who is qualified can get a college education if they want it—and that's for the first time in history."

At Rome, Dewey was to participate in ground-breaking ceremonies for public housing and arterial highway projects.

He was to invade Syracuse after a G.O.P. luncheon meeting at Onondaga.

Police Boss Says He'll Get Taylor

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 10 (AP)—The welcome mat was out in front of the Birmingham city jail for Idaho's Senator Glenn Taylor today. Taylor spurned the invitation.

The obstacles to his entering the jail to serve a 180-day sentence were matched only by the impatience of Police Commissioner E. C. Connor to have Taylor behind bars.

"You can quote me as saying I'm going to leave no stone unturned," Connor said. "I'm going to get him."

Taylor was convicted of disorderly conduct following a scuffle with police outside a Negro youth meeting in 1948. The U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the conviction.

Taylor came here as a Progressive party candidate for vice-president. Scheduled to address the meeting, he collided with police when he tried to go through a door marked "Negro Entrance."

The Senator said his trial would be a test of Birmingham's segregation laws. City counsel insisted the only issue was "a simple case of assault and battery" upon a police officer.

To Seek Extradition
Connor said he would seek extradition of the senator to serve his sentence in the Birmingham jail. Taylor, out in Idaho, said he didn't plan to come near Alabama.

The Constitution grants members of Congress certain immunities from arrest while Congress is in session. Taylor's term expires in January.

A state's attorney said Taylor's extradition would depend upon the governors of Alabama and Idaho. He said Gov. James E. Folsom first must ask the governor of Idaho to authorize extradition of Senator Taylor. Then the Idaho executive must agree to the request.

Governor Folsom was not available for comment last night. The question also was raised whether a misdemeanor, with which Taylor was charged, is an extraditable offense.

Nothing to Say
In Boise, Gov. A. Robins was asked if he would approve Taylor's extradition, and said:

"I have nothing to say until I see the extradition papers. I will have to receive them before I can comment."

The Idaho senator said he planned to remain at Pocatello, Idaho, until late November when Congress reconvenes.

"I'm not going down there and turn myself over to that chain gang," he declared. Birmingham has no chain gang. City prisoners are put to work on

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Miller of 32 Josephine avenue, boarded an American Airlines plane at New York Friday, Oct. 6, en route to Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Miller, a prominent Kingston attorney, is Grand Chief de Guerre, Societe 40 and 8, Dept. of New York American Legion. While in Los Angeles he will attend the Promenade Nationale of the 40 and 8, in addition to the American Legion National Convention.

neither could be described as wealthy. Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) committee chairman, in summarizing the committee's hearings here last week, said there was evidence that hoodlums were paying law enforcement officials for protection. He promised a "very full investigation" of this phase of the inquiry.

Explanations Satisfy Crime Investigators

Chicago, Oct. 10 (AP)—Two police captains told Senate crime investigators yesterday how they are fixed financially and, an investigator said, their explanations appeared satisfactory.

Col. George H. White, a committee investigator, said after questioning the two captains, that reports of big payoffs by gambling bosses "look like a lot of smoke but not much fire."

White said that on the basis of his interviews with the two district captains, Joseph Goldberg and Louis Kintzko, he saw no reason for summoning them to appear before the committee when it resumes hearings here next week. He added that both had asked to appear to clarify their position.

White said both captains gave "frank and forthright" accounts of their financial affairs. He added that both admitted assets over and above their salaries as policemen ($5,200 a year), but the streets and performing house-keeping duties around the jail. "He'd better practice on his guitar," retorted Connor, "because he's going to have 180 days in the Birmingham jail to play it."

Albany Cabbies Threaten Strike

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 10 (AP)—Union taxi drivers threatened a wage strike Oct. 21 against six of Albany's cab companies.

Local 895, A.F.L. Teamsters, is demanding a $7.50 daily wage guarantee, or 46 per cent of the business done by a driver, whichever is greater.

Anthony J. Battle, business agent of the local, said last night the old contract, which expired Aug. 1, provided for a $39 weekly guarantee, or 46 per cent of the business, whichever was greater.

Negotiations have been under way since July. Battle said the Pearl, Yellow, Checker, Paradise, Albany Quarter and Pine Hills Taxi Companies had been notified the drivers would go out unless their demands were met.

The strike would affect about 170 drivers, he said.

Dogma Is Announced

Vatican City, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Vatican newspaper, L'Osservatore Romano, announced today the dogma of the Virgin Mary's bodily assumption into heaven will be proclaimed Nov. 1 in St. Peter's Square. The newspaper said Pope Pius XII decided the proclamation would be made in the square because of the vast number of Holy year pilgrims expected to be on hand for the occasion. A pontifical Mass for the occasion will be celebrated immediately afterwards in the basilica.

pay half of the cost of the extra $3,000,000,000 it plans to spend for defense during the same period.

Informed American officials are inclined to regard a quick solution of France's rearmament problem as even more pressing than that of Britain because:

1. The French government must present a defense budget to Parliament shortly after it convenes Oct. 16.

2. France undoubtedly will get the biggest chunk of the $4,500,000,000 Congress has appropriated to rearm America's 11 Atlantic Pact allies against possible Russian aggression.

The big problem in the French rearmament picture, officials said, is not only where France will get dollars but how France can raise the billions of francs needed to pay for its share of the rearmament burden without causing serious inflation at home.
